BILL POSTER

Made Defendant in Divorce Suit.

Michael A. Kuhn, well-known bill poster of Hamilton, O., has been made the defendant in a suit for divorce on the grounds of cruelty.

Kuhn and his wife were married in 1886 in Hamilton, and have three children, the eldest of which is fourteen years old. The acts of cruelty which Mrs. Kuhn charges date back four years, when she alleges he began to curse and abuse her in the presence of the employes, they being proprietors of a wall paper business. Verbal assaults, which Mrs. Kuhn imputes to jealousy, materialized into genuine wife-beating. Recently he drove her from home, and hence the divorce proceedings.

PREMIUM ON SPACE.

The Hartford Bill Posting Company Had Business Beyond Capacity.

The Hartford Bill Posting Company, of Hartford, Conn., was caught between two fires recently, owing to the contest between the Buffalo Bill and the Pawnee Bill Shows for advertising space on the company's boards. The advance agent of the Buffalo Bill Show got there first and had succeeded in buying up nearly all the boards in Manchester, Conn., when Pawnee Bill's agent appeared on the scene. A lively time followed. The "chance may offer" boards were posted three or four thick and the large stands often bore the bills of both shows side by side.

As soon as this fight was over the agent of the Goodrich Circus came in and tried to buy up all the space, so as to leave none for the Walter Main Shows. The Hartford Company had their hands full for awhile.

LEVYNE'S LETTER.

Dayton, O., June 12, 1902.

To the Editor of "The Billboard:"

Dear Sir—Dayton, O., population 90,000, is controlled by the Bryan Company, Incorporated, managed by Mr. H. P. Merkle. This is one of the few cities where an advertiser gets more than his money's worth. The capacity of the town is 175 locations, any one of which will take a twenty-sheet, besides having about fifty distinct eight-sheet boards. The peculiar construction of the city prevents central locations; but if an advertiser wishes to get the eye of the Daytonites, Bryan offers peculiar facilities.

Mr. Charles Bryan, the president of this corporation, is also president of the Bill Posters' Association of the United States and Canada.

I find in looking over the boards that all paper is well blanked in and each board capped, framed and painted, and the reputation of this firm is such that it hardly needs a word of recommendation from me.

Last week, while in Louisville, Ky., I found hardly any change, with the exception of the refitting of the office. Mr. Adams was in control of the office, and I failed to find either one of the Mr. Whalens, as both were out of the city. I had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Rube Robinson on his return from Wheeling, W. Va., where he had gone to look over the plant with the intention of purchasing the same, but as a prohibitive price was placed upon it, Mr. Robinson wouldn't bite. He left the same day for French Lick Springs, and the following week he would be in New York City.

Just had the pleasure of meeting Mr. C. L. McClelland, of Xenia, O., who reports that his boards are all well filled, and he is nearly on the point of refusing paper. He also says that he has an exceptionally good bill wagon, beautifully arrayed in colors, and has all the good points that a wagon of this kind should have.

Mr. McClelland tells me that his country route takes in fourteen towns; that Xenia's population is 10,000, and he has twenty-seven locations, any one of which will take a twenty-four-sheet, besides fifteen eight-sheet stands. Mr. McClelland is secretary of the Ohio State Bill Posters' Association, which goes to show that he is an up-to-date man in the business.

In Cincinnati this week I had the distinguished pleasure of shaking hands with Bob Campbell, of Chicago, and Mr. Frank W. Chamberlain, of Burlington, Ia. Bob and Frank came down to Cincinnati to look over that city's entanglement, and what was done was none of my business. I'll allow that report to go in by those so authorized.

Yours truly,
M. L. LEVYNE.

DAUBS.

Boom the Milwaukee convention.

Hotel Pfister, Milwaukee, July 8-11.

Edgar John Arnold will attend the Milwaukee meeting.

The attendance at Milwaukee now bids fair to exceed 500.

It looks as if Chas. Bernard will have no opposition for secretary.

Wade R. Milan has just completed a new line of boards at Lagrange, Ga.

R. C. Campbell, Frank Chamberlain and L. H. Ramsey spent June 9 in Cincinnati.

Advertise in "The Billboard." It has the largest circulation of any paper in its class.

Sam W. Hoke is undecided whether he will attend the Milwaukee convention or not.

If you know of any fairs, street fairs or parks that are not in our list, send them to us.

A. G. Howe has purchased the bill boards formerly owned by A. P. Myers, at Glenwood, Ia.

Phil. Morton hob-nobbed with the gang, June 9, and conducted himself like one of the elect.

"Rube" Robinson tried to buy the plant at Wheeling, W. Va., but Rader wanted $20,000 for it.

John J. Dale is now city bill poster at Rochester, Minn., succeeding J. C. Judge, who sold out to him.

Bill posters will confer a favor on us by bringing any errors or omissions in our park list to our notice.

O. P. Fairchild, of Covington, Ky., is greatly improved in health, and will attend the Milwaukee Convention.

Chas. B. Hood has disposed of his plant in Havana, and will soon accept a position with R. C. Campbell, in Chicago.

Mr. Jim McMullen, the popular bill poster of Charleston, W. Va., is putting up enough boards to double the capacity of his plant.

E. O. Burroughs, proprietor of the bill posting plant at Winamac, Ind., was married recently to Miss Bell M. Williams, of that place.

The Big Four Railroad has made special rates for the Billposters' Convention in Milwaukee. The fare from Cincinnati and return will be $18.

Mrs. Hoke is in favor of continuing the bill posting, and will make application for a solicitorship, in case Sam does not apply for reinstatement.

We want to publish a list of names of those who are going to attend the meeting at Milwaukee, in next week's issue. If you are going, write us.

The Biddeford & Saco Advertising and Bill Posting Co., Frank R. Feld, business manager, is sending out circulars, announcing an extension of their plant.

If you are going to the Milwaukee convention, write every bill poster that you know and tell him you are going. It will be the means of encouraging others to go.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Wisconsin is considering the practicability of instituting a crusade against bill boards in that State. Such attempts have been heard of before.

Every bill poster who fails to attend the Milwaukee Convention will regret it just once, but that will be all the rest of his life. It will be years, in all probability, before there will be another meeting to equal it. Over 500 members expected. Just think of it!

Frand, Fitzgerald, manager of the Cream City Bill Posting Company, the association member at Milwaukee, wants to hear from every member who will attend the convention at Milwaukee. Mr. Fitzgerald will engage rooms in advance for you. Write and tell him what you want to pay. He will do the rest.

Members who desire to engage rooms in advance in Milwaukee for the convention are invited to write to Mr. Frank Fitzgerald, care of the Cream City Bill Posting Company, Milwaukee, Wis. Tell him just what you want to pay per day, whether you want to stop on the American or European plan, and if you are going to bring your wife, children or friends, state how many there will be in your party. He knows the town, and can do much better for you than Jennings Bros., of Bridgeport, Conn., who were suspended last month on charges preferred by Clarence E. Runey, and who were to stand suspended in both the National and New England associations until they settled with Mr. Runey for 175 eight-sheet Old Kentucky Taylor Whisky, together with freight, etc., have settled as directed by the committee. Having paid Mr. Runey in full, they are now reinstated, without further notice. All solicitors and members of both associations will govern themselves accordingly.

Bill posting in Winamac, Ind., is on the boom, according to the report of E. O. Burroughs, who does the posting at that place. In two weeks he put up 100 sheets for the May Festival; 500 dodgers and 84 sheets for the Elks' Carnival at Logansport; 2 12-sheets, 5 8-sheets and 50 half-sheets Bull Durham, for American Tobacco Co; 3 10-sheets, 2 8-sheets and 20 2-sheets, Florodora Cigars, with three other shipments in prospect, and one from Dr. Chase. He has increased the capacity of his plant considerably, and will have to still further enlarge it in order to meet the business.

DISTRIBUTORS' NOTES.

The Economy Company, of Flint, Mich., will tack muslin banners in small towns and on country roads.

Who knows anything about the Co-Operative Distributors' Association of the United States and Canada?

The Monthly Buckeye is the name of a new distributors' paper, published at Lancaster, O. The price is 25 cents a year.

Distributors should attend the bill posters' convention at Milwaukee. There will be one open session that will enable them to see what a real convention is like. It will convey an idea of the strength of the big association, which can be had in no other way.

NAT GOODWIN

When he reaches Cincinnati, always dines at Nougaret's Cafe, 229 East Fourth street. Most theatrical epicures visit this celebrated establishment, where they are sure to find the best.

COMMERCIAL ADVERTISERS.

Thirty-seven new fairs in this issue.

Advertising agents will be welcome at Milwaukee.

No advertisement is as prompt in yielding results as the poster.

Commercial advertisers should attend the bill posters' convention at Milwaukee.

C. N. Brown, of Winston, N. C., will advertise a dandruff cure on the bill boards.

Advertisers who exhibit will do well to consider street fairs. They are enjoying great vogue and getting tremendous attendance. Several firms have placed traveling exhibits on circuit.

ADVERTISING TIPS.

A joke is nearly always out of place in an ad.

Persistency is essential to successful advertising.

Always be prepared to prove what is claimed in your ad.

Advertising that is interesting will always interest the public.

The policy of the advertising should be the policy of the business.

Any article, no matter what the worth, will only sell extensively by thorough advertising.

Making advertising profitable is far more easy than making a business profitable without it.

Never let the design monopolize the attention and overshadow the name of the article advertised.

N. W. Ayer & Son, Philadelphia, Pa., are placing the advertising of Raymond & Whitcomb's excursions; also of Hire's Root Beer.

Simplicity should be strictly adhered to in poster and sign advertising. Designs that catch the eye are those that are simple and suggestive, without a complication of figures.

IN BUNCHES.

High Wire Walker Has Several Misadventures.

W. H. Davenport, the high wire walking artist who has been performing at Chester Park, Cincinnati, O., recently, had a series of accidents that came near ending his life. While walking on a wire rope 60 feet longer than he has been accustomed to using, one of the guy wires came loose, and he was thrown several feet in the air. Descending he managed to catch hold of the wire, and thus escaped falling into the water.

This accident ended the performance, and the crowd of spectators was dismissed. Later he attempted to replace the broken wire, but in some way it had come in contact with another wire which was charged with electricity, and when he touched it he received a shock that sent him headforemost into the lake. He had a small kit of tools attached to his belt, and this additional weight made it impossible for him to swim to the shore, and he was in imminent danger of drowning. A boatman who saw him fall went to his rescue, and succeeded in hauling him into the boat and landed him safely.

The company had only been on the road eleven days, and had met with considerable opposition from the elements.

This was the last play Mr. Herne wrote, and was produced while he was starring under the management of the Lieblers.

Several cities in Michigan will have summer seasons of drama. Manager Bush, of the Academy, in Detroit, has combined with managers of houses at Jackson and Battle Creek, and will play two nights each week an organization composed of players from the Daly forces and James K. Hackett's company, with Jane Oaker as leading lady. The company will also play two nights each week in Jackson and Battle Creek.

Curtis V. Smith, of Bellefontaine, O., has embarked in the show business as manager of a "Weary Willie Walker" company. He left for New York June 9, and his father has been there several weeks getting out the paper and attending to other business connected with the enterprise. The Figaro, of Paris, recently printed a telegram from M. Rostand, in regard to the rumor that he asked M. Coquelin to play "Cyrano" and "The Merchant Prince of Corneville" on alternate evenings. M. Rostand telegraphed that he can neither confirm nor verify the information, "the realization of which," he says, "does not depend entirely on me. As far as I am concerned, I find the idea amusing." This, the Figaro adds, is a clear statement for those who know how to read between the lines, and even for those who do not.

He has been invited to play with the famous Nickish Orchestra, in Holland, and will appear as the soloist at the Royal Exposition on June 17. He will return on Aug. 2, to fill engagements with his band.

The failure of the James W. Morrissey English Grand Opera Company, at New York, several weeks ago, cost Thomas F. Shay, the Cincinnati lawyer (father of Prima Donna Rose Cecilia Shay), $3,000. Mr. Shay has been very unfortunate in advancing the ambitions of his daughter. Last fall he started her out at the head of a company, managed by W. A. Thompson. The company came to grief after four or five weeks of bad business.

The many friends and acquaintances of Mr. Louis Malecki (who has been for years in charge of the band and orchestra department for John Church & Co. (Chicago) will be surprised and pleased to learn that he has opened an establishment for himself at 206 Wabash avenue, wherein can be found everything in the line of band and orchestra music, strings, etc. "Louie" is noted as one of the most obliging, pleasant and accommodating salesmen the Church Co. ever had, his efforts to accommodate and assist the inquiries of professional musicians or the veriest tyro being a point which made him remarkably popular. The writer found "Ach, Louie," with a bundle of real smiles and good nature, behind a mass of manuscripts and musical editions of all kinds, through which he was romping for the benefit of Prof. Jos. Norton, of the Vogel Minstrels. Joe said: "Well, I teep my hat to heem. I hope he gets it all."

The Waterbury Brothers and Tenny were at San Souci Park, Chicago, week of June 1, where they were featured, and proved a bright specialty for vaudeville. The Marimba number especially, in connection with Mr. Tenny's efforts, demanding repeated encores. "Earnest," by the way, has been for years one of the most popular comedians in minstrelsy, and deserves all that comes his way.

Hale and Francis, America's representative hoop, club and globe experts, were at San Souci Park, week of June 1, heading a bill of exceptional merit. The manipulation of hoops, clubs, etc., by these two artists, the wonderful evolutions which they cause the little hoops to accomplish, seem truly wonderful to the spectator. And yet the ease, grace and rapidity with which they seem to direct the little circular strips calls for no apparent effort on the part of the performers, but is readily and heartily appreciated by their audience, who demonstrate their appreciation by continuous applause. The act is one which must be seen to be appreciated, and is one of the strongest acts for refined audiences, parks or vaudeville bills in this country.

Mr. Lew Baldwin, of Coburn and Baldwin, musical comedians, and also one of the firm of the Barlow Minstrels, spent the week of June 1 at his home, in Battle Creek, Mich. "Lew" is one of the best "good fellows" in the land and a popular comdian, his "fly-paper nigger" having been a tremendous hit. Owing to the attention demanded in the management of the Barlow Minstrels, it is whispered that "Cobe" would be glad to arrange for a reliable and useful straight man to relieve him of his work in the specialty. Whoever the lucky man should be he would gain both a good position and splendid comedian as a partner by doubling with "Lew" in a specialty and the company whose merit is well established and whose future is very bright.

Mr. Fred. P. Russell arrived in Chicago on Saturday, June 9, from his home in Brooklyn, where he was spending his vacation for the summer months. Mr. Russell joins the Great Barlow Minstrels in September as principal comedian, and will prove the coming season that his title of the "Pathetic Comedian" has won him (in connection with his appearance the past season with the Barlow Minstrels) a host of friends. Success to the Russell Theater and success to "Pop."

The Guy Bros. Minstrels is one of the oldest shows on the road, having been in the business for about forty-two years, thirty-one of which have been spent in traveling over an almost identical route, with great success. The two survlving Guy brothers, William and George, are the proprietors, the other four brothers being dead. William, the oldest, is now stone blind, and George manages the business. Minstrelsy was bred in the bones of these well known Guy brothers, their father having been an old-time minstrel man and a pioneer B. P. O. E. Although the show was founded so many years ago, it is thoroughly up-to-date, and still continues to please large audiences wherever it exhibits. In years gone by the Guy brothers traveled with the following old-time minstrel companies: Hooley's Minstrels, in Brooklyn, N. Y.; Campbell's Minstrels, New York City; Woods' Minstrels, New York City; Christy's Minstrels, New York; Griffin & Christy's, New York; Bryant's Minstrels; Kelly & Leon's Minstrels, on Broadway; Harry Robinson's Minstrels; Welch, Hughes & White's Minstrels, and others. Parsons has gone to Mr. Collier's summer home at St. James, L. I., to be thoroughly drilled in Collier's conception of the star role. ## LIVELY TIME.

Sun Bros.' Show Scene of Gun Fight.

At New West Moreland, the last stand the Sun Bros.' Progressive Shows made in Tennessee, an old-fashioned gun fight took place during the night show. Mrs. Wiley Ferris, and her son, aged eight, were doing double traps. Without an instant warning a terrific fussilade began. Every man, woman and child in the audience were on their feet in an instant rushing madly to and fro. Bang, bang went the guns. Screaming women, crying and frightened children, crazy and half-drunken men added to the uproar. Jack Benson, boss propr., threw the matting over the trap bar. Young Ferris took hold to come down. Instead of having both ends of the rope, he and the boy lit rather suddenly on his trunks.

only had one. The web, of course, slipped.

Mrs. Ferris dropped from the lower bar to the ground and was uninjured. When the shooting began, Geo. Sun grabbed the ticket box and vanished. Otto Stear grabbed Sammy Morris and started in the direction of Toledo. Si Coon, leader of B. & O., fainted. Burt Moore whistled one strain of "The Wabash," and took refuge in Fred. Tryon's horn. The Walters' Bros. were humming "God Save the King," while the "Queen's own," Wm. Miles, was trying to get into his trunk, with John Shelby shouting "keep it open." The second mate of the Norwegian bark "Hedges," blew his whistle and cap, and finally blowed to the hotel. In the dressing room things were worse. To start with, Wiley Ferris' pipe went down and out. The greatest calamity that could possibly happen to him. The Three Melvin Bros., who, by the way, had never been in the wold and wooly South before, looked amazed. The understander said: "Vat vill ve did." The middleman, Charley, said: "I guess ve petter ged afraid yet." Paul, the top mounter, settled all questions by putting on his clothes over tights and leading the others in their mad race to the hotel. S. Edw. Corbett became so excited that he put Baby Sun's wardrobe in the cat pie box, and Dan Lester fell in the slip hole. Capt. Leo Collins and Johnnie Parker both had narrow escapes, and as the show was pretty well advance, the sidewalks were dropped, and after a count-up, it was found that but one man was shot. Some one from over the Kentucky line.

TENT BLOWN DOWN.

Twenty-five People Injured, Two Fatally.

On the afternoon of June 12, while the Harris Nickel Plate Show was exhibiting at Sigourney, Ia., a tornado arose and the circus tent collapsed before the fierce wind.

A panic resulted. People struggled together beneath the fallen canvas, screaming and cursing, and unwittingly each contributing to the danger.

Twenty-five people were injured, more or less serviously, of whom two will die.

EDDY FAMILY JOINS WALLACE.

The famous Eddy Family, acrobats and aerialists extraordinary, joined the Great Wallace Shows at Indianapolis, Monday, June 2, replacing the Da Comas. The latter act was badly impaired at the very beginning by an accident to Art Da Coma, by which both his legs were broken, and week before last its usefulness was entirely destroyed by an accident to another member, Jno. C. Judge, who broke one of his legs.

In this emergency, Mr. Wallace immediately opened negotiations with Mr. Eddy, and finally carried them to a successful conclusion.

The salary is not given, but it is safe to say that it is a big one.

Nine out of every ten of the crusades against the bill boards originate in the brain of the manager of some losing or poor-paying newspaper. They are inspired by envy, nurtured by cupidity and fostered by greed. The sole purpose of these movements is to destroy the bill boards, in the hope that some of the advertising that they carry may be diverted to the columns of the paper and prop up its decaying parts.

This is a plain statement and a broad one, but it is warranted by the facts. The solid newspapers of the country never engage in the practice. Furthermore, the weaklings never make it go, thus demonstrating their weakness and lack of influence.

The nice young men who edit these cheap papers on small salaries and who are better fitted by nature to clerk at a ribbon counter, may thunder about the unsightliness of the bill boards to their hearts' content without once disturbing the peace of mind of the bill poster.

But now and then some person of wealth takes up the cause, and the movement then assumes a serious aspect. It is usually the son or a grandson of the man who made the money. Self-made men have more sense and find no trouble in occupying their time to better advantage. Money is powerful. It can organize societies, municipal art leagues or anti-billboard clubs. It can pay hall rent and influence young people—especially nice young girls. These in turn can "protest and resolve." Their findings are news, and papers of influence are compelled to print them as such. If the movement ends there, as it usually does, no harm is done.

Now and then, though, these wealthy dawdlers are not satisfied with the publication of their protest. They imagine that the abolition of the bill boards is really essential to their happiness. Their aesthetic souls are disturbed by the poster and their sensitive nerves are racked and unstrung by its cheerful bits of color. Money is called into play again, but this time it is not wisely used. They could abate what they are pleased to term a nuisance by buying up the posting sites and pulling down the boards. But no. That would take too much money. They prefer to compel property owners to pander to their over-nice idea of the fitness of things, and hence they resort to legislation.

Regardless of the fact that their own chief source of income is derived—it may be from a mill whose chimneys pollute the atmosphere with smoke, a dye house or chemical works that drains into a stream and kills the fish, or long rows of badly ventilated tenements with unsanitary plumbing—they set themselves up as arbiters of what should be. And they are ruthless. It matters not to them that the German grocer on the corner derives a small rental for his fence which enables him to gladden the hearts of his children with a birthday gift or an outing. He cares naught for the fact that the posters on the farmer's barn took the whole family to the circus, nor that a bill board on a suburban lot pays the taxes on it and frequently enables an unfortunate owner to avoid sacrificing it while he is tiding over financial reverses.

All this is nothing to the aristocracy. They care not at all for the rights of others. A bill poster ruined and his family brought to want? What does it signify, provided they can have an idle wish gratified? Nothing at all! There will be no commune in America because there are not enough sons of rich men to constitute an aristocracy worthy the name, and because estates are not entailed. It really seems a shame, though, that we can not have a little killing now and then to attend to the few we have, for there is only one class that is more contemptible—those disciples of Oscar Wilde who fawn and pander to the newly rich, and orate at pink teas on the evils of the poster.

THE ELEMENT OF LUCK.

To the successful man of affairs it is a difficult, not to say unpleasant, matter to recognize in successful business careers the element known as "luck." We are taught to believe that honest, hard work of ten or more hours a day is what constitutes the "luck" that brings men success and riches in business, but it must be admitted that there are cases in which one wonders how some men succeed in mercantile life with their narrow, bigoted views and their ancient ideas of business methods. All this is brought to mind by the attitude of a majority of the merchants of Shelbyville, Ind., in an attempt by the B. P. O. E. of that city to give a free street fair and carnival last week. It was to be expected that the ministers and churches would "knock" such an enterprise, but it was reasonably certain that the merchants of that city would encourage it. The opposite was the case. The churches offered no objection upon the assurance of the Elks' committee that the shows would be free from vulgarity and suggestiveness, but the merchants got out their hammers and succeeded in inducing the members of Council to refuse to grant the use of the streets, without which, of course, a street fair was impossible. The objection made by the merchants was based on the assertion that a street fair would interfere with the county fair which is to be held three months hence. The fact that street fairs stimulate rather than retard the success of county fairs has been demonstrated so often and so clearly in "The Billboard" that nothing will be added to the force of the argument by a further discussion of it here. It might be said, however, that the fair ground in Shelby County, Ind., is five miles outside the city of Shelbyville, and that during fair week the merchants of Shelbyville do not even see, much less do business with one farmer in ten who visits the county fair, for the very good reason that no road to the fair ground necessarily leads through the city. However, this is not the point "The Billboard" desires to make. Last year a street fair was given at Greensburg, Ind., which is twenty miles from Shelbyville, and a special train carrying 1,100 people from Shelbyville went to Greensburg. A few weeks ago 600 people went from the same place to Columbus, Ind., to see a street fair that was given there. Every Sunday excursions are run from Shelbyville to Cincinnati, Indianapolis and Louisville, and from 150 to 200 people take advantage of these Sunday excursions to get away from Shelbyville and spend their money elsewhere. It is almost impossible to believe that the intelligent business men of Shelbyville, Ind., can not or will not see the necessity of doing something to keep their people at home and allowing them the opportunity at least of spending their money there instead of in other cities, yet the Shelbyville merchants are on record as being opposed to street fairs—admittedly the best trade stimulus known to the business world today.

Again, Shelbyville has no theater or opera house, and one of the primary objects of the Shelbyville lodge of Elks in attempting to give the recent street fair was to raise funds for erecting an Elks' hall, theater and hotel combined. As it is, Shelbyville people are compelled to go to either Cincinnati or Indianapolis for their amusements. This means that they spend in these two cities money which they would otherwise spend at home if they had an opera house.

All these facts have been put before Shelbyville merchants by the B. P. O. E. of that city, but they will not change their position regarding street fairs.

Is it any wonder that one is at a loss to account for how such merchants succeed in business?

MORRIS S. SCHLESINGER.

Mr. Morris S. Schlesinger, whose photograph adorns our front page this week, was born in Philadelphia, Pa., on April 1, 1874. Having passed through the primary and intermediate grades of the Philadelphia public schools, he spent one year at Hughes High School, in Cincinnati, and then returned to Philadelphia, where he graduated from Rugby Academy, at the age of seventeen.

He then went to Wilkesbarre, Pa., and accepted the position of associate city editor on the News Dealer, which situation he held for two years, when he resigned to take an engagement as press agent and confidential man with Mr. Max C. Anderson, who ran the "Wonderland," in Wilkesbarre.

After a season and a half in that capacity he accompanied Mr. Anderson to Cincinnati, when the latter took the management of the Fountain Square Theater, and Mr. Schlesinger was made treasurer and chief assistant, which position he held for four years. Following this engagement he was press agent of the Walnut Street Theater, Cincinnati, under the Rainforth & Havlin regime, for one year, when he went on the road with the Passion Play pictures, of which enterprise he was half owner.

Mr. Schlesinger then accepted the position of manager and general representative of the G. A. Wegefarth enterprises, which included the Court Street, Bijou and Washington Theaters, in Buffalo, N. Y., and after two years he was given the management of the Empire Theater (formerly the Bijou), in Washington, D. C., where he has been ever since, gaining in success and popularity. He has been running vaudeville and high-class burlesque. Next year will find him in the same capacity.

During his ten years of theatrical experience Mr. Schlesinger has always been known as an ardent advocate of bill board advertising. During the run of "The Devil's Daughter," at the Court Street Theater, in Buffalo, which was under his management, contemporary with the Pan-American Exposition, it was said that an attraction was never given more attention by bill posters and newspapers. It enjoyed a run there of twenty-two weeks with marked success, and the bill boards of more than twenty cities, within a radius of 300 miles, were, during the entire summer, covered with its posters.

NEW MANAGEMENT.

Gainesville, Tex., To Have Up-to-Date Theater, With All Modern Improvements.

The opera house of Gainesville, Tex., has a new manager, G. V. Brown, who is making extensive improvements in the way of putting in electric fans, steam heat, new scenery, newly painted inside and out—in fact, putting it in first-class condition in every way. The house has been re-wired throughout, so that the best electrical effects can be produced. It is a modern ground-floor theater, eleven hundred actual seats, stage fifty feet wide and thirty-five feet deep, proscenium twenty-five feet high and thirty feet wide, grooves eighten feet high and fifty feet to gridiron.

We predict a bright future for the house under the able management of Mr. G. V. Brown, who is wide-awake and looks to the interest of his patrons. Nothing but the first-class shows will be booked. The house will be ready for the opening of the new season.

NEW REPERTOIRE.

Backman Comedy Company Preparing for Coming Season.

Since the closing of the season on May 2 last, Mr. J. T. Backman, sole owner and proprietor of the Backman Comedy Company, has been drudgingly busy reading and selecting new plays for next season. The work is about completed now, and Mr. Backman states that in a few days he will be ready to announce the repertoire for the season of 1902-03. The work on the new scenery for the show will also begin shortly. When all of the old stuff is repainted and repaired, together with the new that will be added, it will comprise a good full carload, and perhaps more. So far, everything has been progressing nicely, and next season promises to be the brightest one in the history of the Backman Comedy Company. As the company was an exceptionally good one last season, many of the old players have been re-engaged. The new ones recently signed are: Beaumont Claxton, Ruth Chandler, Edna Earl and Mr. and Mrs. John Justus. The contract has been let for a big supply of special paper, which the management avers will surpass in beauty anything that has ever been printed for this company.

OBITUARY.

Blanche Warren, a well known soubrette, was asphyxiated by escaping gas while she was asleep at her boarding house in San Francisco, last week.

James Crank, an attache of the Reed's Trained Animal Show, during a dispute with a fellow employee, was struck on the head with a club, and died later from the blow.

Robert Jefferson Farrell, an actor, committed suicide by swallowing poison recently in New York. Friends say that Farrell had been despondent for some time. He was 25 years old.

James Stage, one of the force on Car No. 2 of the Walter L. Main Shows, died recently of asthma at New Brunswick, N. J. The body was sent home to Connellsville, Pa., for burial, where a mother survives him.

Odell Williams, the comedian, died recently in New York of heart failure. During the run of "The Auctioneer," at the Bijou, in which he played an important part, he had to leave on account of his illness. He accompanied Mrs. Leslie Carter on her first trip to England, in "The Heart of Maryland." He leaves a wife, who is now on the stage. Williams was also the original 'Squire in "Way Down East," a character that made him famous wherever that piece was presented.

Mrs. Spencer, of the Walter L. Main Shows, who appeared under the name of "Dottie Farnsworth," while performing on the cycle whirl at Conneaut, O., ran over the top and was injured. When the circus train reached Salamanca the woman was taken to the hospital, and peritonitis developed, her death resulting. During her life Mrs. Spencer had been famous as a bicycle rider and held the highest female record for speed. Her home was in Minneapolis, and her husband is a traveling man. He was with his wife at the time of her death.

NEW YORK LETTER.

John Foster Makes Merry at the Permanent Circus, while the "Only Oscar" Battles Against Unseasonable Weather.

New York, June 16.—Mirth and music rule the boards in New York just now. Entertainments light and airy, and ofttimes frivolous to foolishness prevail, and the list of theaters is small. At the Casino "A Chinese Honeymoon" has made a pleasing hit; at Daly's "King Dodo" continues his merry reign; at the Herald Square is dainty "Dolly Varden," with Lulu Glaser; at Wallack's the showy "Show Girl;" at the New York the new attraction called "The Chaperons," and at the Knickerbocker the tuneful "Wild Rose." For outdoor shows and other entertainments there are the Terrace Garden, with concert and comic opera, and the St. Nicholas Garden, with Duss' band concerts. The heat does not affect the continuous performances at Keith's or Proctor's.

With the completion of Mrs. Fiske's supplementary engagement at the Manhattan on Saturday last the dramatic season of 1901-02 ended and, aside from the various musical shows intended for hot-weather consumption, so to say, not much is doing in the way of amusements, and managers are hard at work preparing for the next season, which will open as usual toward the end of August. David Belasco announces a new play for Blanche Bates, but according to his custom, still suppresses its name and subject matter. He has also commissioned Charles Klein to write a play, one which will call for a strong company, rather than the individual efforts of a star. The Klaw & Erlanger spectacle, "The Sleeping Beauty and the Beast," will begin its road season at the Illinois Theater in Chicago on Sept. 1. Among those who will appear in it are Leila MacIntyre, Gertrude Mackenzie, Will McCart, Viola Gillette, Phoebe Coyne, Harry Bulger, Joseph Cawthorne, John Page and John Hyams.

John Foster, probably the oldest clown at work, is one of the most popular features of the Greater New York Permanent Circus. Mr. Roster is still hale and hearty, his work being clear cut, his jokes clever and his songs up to date. If King Edward desires a royal jester for the coronation ceremonies, there is just one man in the world that seems peculiarly fitted for the ropal warrant of King's jester, and that man is John Foster.

Hammerstein's Paradise Garden opened on May 26 with a lengthy bill of fifteen strong acts, which are still being played at this popular resort on the combined roofs of the Victoria and Republic Theaters. Mr. Oscar Hammerstein when not in deathly conflict with the building department authorities in respect to his own structural ideas appertaining to new theaters, must have some one to oppose pubnaciously, and since his opening date at the garden, he has put up an extremely strong fight against the clerk of the weather.

Manhattan Beach.—Pains fireworks promise to be a gorgeous affair this season. The opening performance will take place on the 18th of this month. Rome during the period of Nero's reign will be the subject. There is no doubt but that the gladiatorial combats, Roman marches, bacchanalian dances, processions and chariot races will be appreciated. The burning of Rome as a finale ought to be an extremely realistic climax. The theater has an imposing list of musical attractions for this summer. Frank Daniels, in "Miss Simplicity," will be there from June 21 to July 5; "The Show Girl," from July 7 to July 19; Primrose & Dockstader's Minstrels for the next two weeks; then "Florodora" for two weeks, and, finally, the Bostonians for two weeks in "Robin Hood" and "Maid Marian," their engagement to end the season for this resort.

RALPH KELSO.

VAUDEVILLE AND BURLESQUE

Are Holding all the Boards in Philadelphia—Parks Flourishing.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 16.—The theatrical end of it will not take up much space in my letter this week. The nights of last week were very cool, but that did not draw any very large crowds to the open houses. The season is over now until August. The Girard Avenue Theater closed on Saturday night after a two weeks' supplementary season, which was moderately successful. The Park still continues to draw good crowds to see "Lovers' Lane," but will close next Saturday night. Keith's Theater is doing its usual summer business with vaudeville, and the Grand with a vaudeville show and "The Rounders" has had fair audiences during the past week. The same bill is continued this week. The Lyceum is putting in house shows of burlesque and vaudeville, and the crowds are profitable. The house will be kept open as long as it pays. Gilmore's Auditorium had three Jewish performances last week, and crowded the house to the doors. Several more will be given before the house is turned over to Ed. Stair, the new lessee. At the Broad an amateur dramatic society put on "Ambition" for three nights and gave satisfaction.

The parks in this city and vicinity are doing fairly well, although the cool nights of the past week kept the attendance down somewhat. Sousa closed at Willow Grove Park yesterday, and will be succeeded today by Victor Herbert and his Pittsburg Symphony Orchestra. The engagement of Sousa was the most successful he ever played in this city, he drawing thousands to that place. Liberati is soon to open at Washington Park on the Delaware, and it is expected that business at that resort will then pick up. Chestnut Hill Park will put in a big vaudeville show to-day under the direction of George Lukens. Business has been very good at this park. Torresdale Park has a small variety show on, and business is bad. There is a lack of management at this place, which accounts for the poor business. Woodside Park is doing well. Adgie and her lions continue as a free attraction and Conterno's Band are giving performances in the theater. Sam Lingerman is doing well with his Palace of Amusements. Central Park is not doing much.

PHILADELPHIA GOSSIP.

The Chicago Stars, the lady baseball club, play two games here this week. They will cross bats with local clubs. They are doing very well on this trip. They carry sidewalls and enclose the grounds they play on. They travel in their own sleeper.

Hashim, at the Grand, admits ladies and children for 10 cents, and gives each one a plate of ice cream. You have to sharpen your pencil at both ends to figure out the profit on that deal.

Ralph Knapp, the manager of the Royal Marine Band, happened to be in the vicinity of a large fire last week, and succeeded in rescuing four people from death by suffocation.

Sanford H. Robison, general manager of The Bill Posting Sign Company, of this city, returned from Mudlavia on Saturday much improved in health.

William F. Carroll, who made such a hit with Louis Mann for the past two seasons, is resting in this city. He has signed with a well-known manager for next season. During the summer he has a number of plays to revise, and will be kept busy until time for rehearsals.

William F. Miller will control two stock houses in this city next season—the Girard Avenue and Forepaugh's.

BOB WATT.

"BIG RECEIPTS."

The Shibboleth of all Amusements in St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., June 16.—The past week in St. Louis has certainly been a busy one in the amusement line. Every park has played to capacity, and the Elks' carnival are simply turning them away. The summer gardens are continually offering new attractions, and the smiling managers are beginning to be in a good humor.

Delmar Garden, (J. Janopolo, Mgr.)—"The Beggar Student," presented this week, is better enacted and staged than the opening opera, and it can be seen that the company is getting down to finished work. The chorus continues to be a decided feature, and Mill Williams also receives great applause. Beginning June 15, "Chimes of Normandy."

Forest Park Highlands, (J. E. Hopkins, Mgr.)—The loop-the-loop and other attractions continue to bring the crowds out to the "big place on the hills. In the vaudeville department, Chas. Gapewin carries off the honors with his new sketch, which is truly true to life. The headliner this week is The Kaufman Family.

Suburban Garden, (Clark Brown, Mgr.)—The Three Morton and Lucille Sanders are dividing honors at the "palace beautiful." The Brothers Damm are also clever, and the wonder workers still continue to do tricks galore. The ostrich farm is quite a hit, the electric fountain sparkles, the Royal Hungarian Band play, and Clark Brown continues to smile. Surely attractions enough. Beginning June 15, Chas. T. Aldrich & Co.

Creve Coeur Lake, (W. Maurice Tobin, Mgr.)—I hardly know what to say about Smiling &Tobin. Every day I can see h'm going down-town with a sack of money bandward. That isn't so bad, but Tobin always comes to my office and shakes his coin in my face. This is evidently the result of good attractions at the lake, for this resort has certainly pleased many thousand people this season. With smiles galore, Mr. Tobin announces Le Feregere, beginning June 15—a really great attraction.

Koerner's Garden, (Will S. Rising, Mgr.)—The opening of Koerner's Garden this season by the Buhler-Kemble-Rising Stock Company, was a grand success. The audience contained the best people of the theater-going class, and all were rewarded, for the evening entertainment was finished in every detail. There is no denying the fact that the World's Fair Stock Company will be a great card during the summer months. Announced for Sunday, June 15, "Sapho."

Uhrig's Cave, (McNeary Bros., Mgrs.)—The May Howard Company continues to please large audiences at the Cave, and all of the burlesques are upto date and clever. The ollos are particularly strong, and it also might be added that the chorus is a very clever body of pretty singing girls. Beginning Sunday, June 15, "Secret Servers at Tampa."

Hashagen Park, "The Coney Island of the West," is still the cause of financial smiles for the ever-hustling Fred. Hashagen. This week's vaudeville bill, headed by Marion and Dean, is, as usual, quite strong, and the Midway is improved greatly by the addition of the Ferris Wheel and Granada and his elephant. Roscoe, the snake eater, continues to be "it," and, all in all, the park is a very busy place.

Eclipse Park, Wallace Woods, Mgr.)—The Gruen Stock Company at Eclipse Park, played the beautiful old piece, "Comrades," week of June 8, to good business. The play, though somewhat quiet for the regular patrons, was, nevertheless, pleasing to them. Deserving special mention are Jessie Cunnington, William A Tulley, Thos. P. Hoier and Delia Cole. Of the specialties, Isabelle Winlock, balladist, and Tom Sterrett, in Jew parodies, deserved mention. A one-act comedietta, entitled "His Girl's Cousin," enacted by Walwin Woods, Thos. P. Hoier and Estelle Seafert, was the curtain raiser, and made a big hit. The mountings and settings were adequate, and the entire production reflects great credit on Manager Woods and Stage Manager Sterrett.

Mannion's Park, (Mannion Bros., Mgrs.)—The vaudeville bill this week, headed by Miss Lillian Walton, makes a good bill. Others who are deserving of mention, are: Raymond and Clark and Douglas and Ford. Beginning June 15, McMahon and Chapelle.

NOTES.

Managers Woods and Sterrett are rapidly filling their time for the Gruen Stock Company, which takes the road at the end of the present summer season at Eclipse Park.

E. H. Robinson, formerly of the Streets of Cairo in Buffalo, is now promoting for Bostock-Ferari Company.

J. W. Fitzgibbons, chairman, and several other gentlemen representing the South Bend delegation of Elks, were visitors at the carnival of the great Bostock-Ferari Company. Mr. Fitzgibbons says that he was delighted with the shows, and that his city will break the record this year. Mr. D. T. Pierce, chairman of the Hancock (Mich.) Elks' Committee, was also a visitor.

The De Kreko Carnival and Exposition Company report a great opening at Victor, Col., June 9.

Mr. Frank Bostock, the Animal King, was in St. Louis the latter part of the week, but only remained a couple of days. He has left for Manhattan Beach.

Pain's fireworks spectacle, "Last Days of Pompeii," will be billed by Counihan and his men. This is sufficient guarantee that the showing will be the best, as Counihan has a way of placing paper in this city which makes the agents' hearts beat with joy. It is estimated that 15,000 sheets of paper will be used in advertising this great night spectacle.

Carrigain-Bashagatour and Mr. Geo. Keymer have formed a partnership, and will place the "Streets of Cairo" on the road. There is no reason why this combination shouldn't be successful, as it is money, energy and brains combined.

Weil's Band, of St. Louis, "the organization with the following," will be the musical feature at Pain's Pompeii in St. Louis. This selection is a happy one, as the band is a drawing card in itself.

DAN S. FISHELL.

"DEFENDER"

Attracts the Aesthetes of Boston.

Columbia Theater, (Under the management of the Chamberlyn Co.) opened Thursday, June 5, for a three weeks' run in Allen Lowe's "Defender," a yachtical extravaganza, in three acts. The show has made a great hit, not for its originality of text and music, but for its magnificence of stage setting and gorgeous and expensive costumes. To sift the story from this tempest of sudden and volcanic changes of stage business and customes would be equal to the blind man picking the winner in a horse race. Ed. Rice would have selected handsomer girls, but the male chorus would be hard to dpulicate. Thirty-five broad-shouldered sons of Erin line up back of the footlights that put to shame the old-time throty boys. The Lord only knows where these fellows come from. They surely came over on a big steamer for the occasion. And they make good at every turn. This revolution in cutting out the "has beens" is a revelation which gives vitality and health to the production. The costumes are silk and satin. The chorus men are adorned in silk hosiery, satin high hats and knickerbochers. The book is not great. The music a lot of baby stuff, composed of Sunday school songs and circus gallops.

The cast which appeared in "The Billboard" last week is a good one. They work hard to give a brilliant performance, which they are fairly successful in. How any sane manager can keep an audience in a close and stuffy theater until 11:45, is more than I can understand. One of the hits of the performance is a novice. Her name is Miss Sandol Milliken, and she has a singing voice high, pure and charming. Her top notes have the true ring of health and culture. Miss Milliken is a valuable find. Only three weeks for Boston, the "The Defender" opens in New York City.

Tremont Theater, (John B. Schoffuel, Mgr.)—"The Prince of Pilsen" moves along merrily to good business. Polly Guzman, one of the company who has little to do, is a talented little woman and a brilliant and cultivated singer, "with top notes." If Manager Savage ever gives her a chance, she will step out of that slow class and sell favorite at once.

The Country Club open their racing season June 17 for three days. This is their twenty-first annual event for the Four Hundred, and with good weather all roads will lead to Brookline.

The Clinton Fair, where Col. John E. Thayer is president, have started on their advertising. Warren Goodall, the secretary, saps this season's meeting will surpass all previous years.

J. J. Flynn's American Opera Company, forty strong, are at Westwood Park to open the summer season. Ben Lodge is the leading comedian with "Chimes," "Mikado," "Bohemian Girl" and other popular light operas in their repertoire. Mr. Flynn is a hustler, a practical advertiser, and, as in previous years, his enterprise should yield a handsome profit.

The annual speedway parade Saturday, June 7, at Brighton, was a pronounced success. Nearly 6,000 people viewed this popular and fashionable annual. The entry contained names of horses owned and driven by Boston wealthy and successful business men. On the reviewing stand sat Governor Crane, Lieutenant-Governor Bates, Mayor Collins, Police Commissioners and Charles River Dam Committee.

After the Gentlemen's Driving Club was the second division, which was made up from members of the Dorchester Driving Club. The Bay State Riding and Driving Club formed the third division. The Somerville Driving Club was the fourth division. The Jamaica Plain and West Medford Clubs the fifth, while the sixth division comprised all the unattached drivers.

After the parade was dismissed the speedway was used for racing between the record horses. This was a very interesting feature, which kept the large crowd excited as they watched the horses fairly fly over the speedway head and head, straving to reach the finish ahead of their rivals.

Frank G. Trott, the secretary, is to be complimented for his indefatigable work which made this year's parade "the greatest ever."

Mechanics' Fair is scheduled for an opening at Mechanics' Hall, beginning next October. This great fair skipped several years, and there is no reason why the old-time interest can not be created again. With work and clear calculating, this should be as in previous years, the biggest and best inside show of the East.

The O. J. Gude Company, of New York, have located in Boston, and the big zinc stands they are erecting in the interest of Uneeda Biscuit are beauties. An orange-shaded yellow back ground, with swell letters, are most imposing and unique. Our local advertisers must get a hot massage to keep in line with this progressive advertising firm.

W. F. Hitchings, manager of old Sanger's Race Course, has received entries for his October stake races far in access of his anticipations—135 in all. The meeting will be the greatest of the season in New England, barring the Grand Circuit at Readville.

Music Hall is doing nicely with the opera. Keith has headliners in the Woman's Fadette Orchestra, Eva Williams and Jac Tucker.

Castle Square is presenting "Tre Ironmaster." Lillian Lawrence has been engaged by the management for next season.

Palace Theater—Mr. Waldron's Own Company to well-pleased audiences.

Norumbega Park has a good bill this week, including Quigley Bros., Ed. F. Reynard, Farnum and Nelson, Miet's liliputian canine actors and other entertainers.

Point of Pines—Pauline Hall headliner.

Funeral services for John Stetson, father of the late John Stetson, Jr., were held at Winthrop Congregational Church, Green street, Charlestown, Tuesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock.

FRANK H. ROBIE.

FLOURISHING

Are All Amusement Resorts in Cincinnati.

Beginning yesterday and for the balance of the week, Chester Park offers a fine list attractions. The bathing beach, the latest addition to the park, is now open to the public, and is proving one of the greatest drawing cards of the resort, as it is always crowded. The two big attractions of last week, Davenport, on the high wire, and Prof. Oldrieve, who walks on the surface of the lake, were held over for another week on account of their great popularity and success as drawing cards. Both acts are very sensational. The two men vary their acts, so that while essentially the same, they are very different in detail from what they have been presenting. Davenport does some new and difficult feats, and Oldrieve adds to the strength of his act by the introduction of some novel fireworks.

In the vaudeville theater there is a complete change of program. The list for the week includes Sidonia, in character changes on the slack wire; the Esher Sisters, buck and wing dancers; Musical Thor, in selections on the xylophone and banjo; Tom Ripley tramp comedian, and Geo. P. Watson and Marguerite Newton, in a comedy sketch, entitled "Cousin Jack's Letter." Concerts by the Tuxedo Ladies' Band and the many free attractions of the park will satisfy amusement seekers.

The advance work of preparing for the a clean, well-conducted circus will thrive and prosper for months at one place, and moreover, so far as the writer remembers, very few of such English permanent circuses ever gave a show that could be compared to what Boyle & Stevens are now quietly and without any ostentation offering New Yorkers. Take their closing act—namely, Kiralfy's ballet of forty young and shapely girls and three premieres dancing to the music of a well-conducted band of thirty professional musicians under August Haase. What would the late lamented P. T. Barnum have done to exploit such an act? Did ever such a strong band play under a circus tent? "Duss and his remarkabe band,' now commencing to play a season of sixteen weeks at the St. Nicholas Rink, would be discounted before maturity like a doubtful promissory note if a live advertising man was given carte blanche and the wherewithal to go ahead and drive home into the lethargic minds of an indifferent public the fact that here, under a cool, commodious, waterproof tent, 8,000 patrons can be comfortably seated and enabled not only to enjoy the performance of an excellent band and ballet, but also witness the best equestrian and aerial acts incidental to the ring of a high-class circus. All this entertainment is actually given for 10, 20 or 30 cents during each afternoon and for 20, 30 or 50 cents during the evening performance. Great Barnum's Ghost! Just imagine, if you can not believe the statement, that these people have a programme embracing such top-liners as Bob Stickney, Jr., with his better half, Louise De Mott, as principal equestrians; the Flying Rathbuns; O. Dale and his six-horse menage act; the Wilson acrobats; McGinley's double trapeze act; Prof. Bristol, with his horses and mules, and Ceballos, who on the high wire is unexcelled. These specialists, who among other artists are supported with the best comedy acts of John Foster, Kenebel and Higgins, all figure in a programme of forty acts, and alas and alack! there are hardly two individuals in every thousand of New York amusement patrons, aside from the myriad of youngsters, who have yet been educated to the fact that there is such a thing in town as a circus—good, bad or indifferent.

It remains to be seen whether the management can continue to play this waiting game long enough to turn the trick of public favor and fill half those 8,000 seats by relying solely upon the undoubted quality of the goods they offer, or whether they will make matters more secure by at once adopting the more strenuous aggressiveness of the American advertiser and try and create a call for their line from the jump-off point, not at the tail-end of the race for the almighty dollar we are all after in this free, enlightened, trust-ridden country.

WACO, TEX.

Waco, Tex., June 16.—West End, (Management and control Citizens' Railway Co.) opened after a week's darkness with Lew Virden's Company, in "A Fool for Luck," to big business. Company good; specialties good. Balance of week, "La Belle Marie." Indefinitely.

J. R. PHILLIPOWSKI.

Fairs and Street-Fairs and Expositions

BUSY PREPARATIONS.

Grounds at Aylmer Being Put in Shape for Coming Fair.

Busy preparations are now in progress for the fair which will be held at Aylmer, Ont., Canada, Sept. 23-25. Workmen are already remodeling the beautiful and extensive grounds, and flower-beds are being artistically arranged throughout the site. Another fountain is being erected, making a total of three such accessories to the aesthetic properties connected with the exhibition, besides the five water founts whose overflow forms the beautiful white miniature lake. The lake will be filled with sturgeon, none of which shall be less than 7 feet long, and which in the crystal water can be seen easily from all points on the circumference.

The track of the association is a half mile around, and is being put in ideal shape.

The purses for this year races will amount to about $1,000.

The association owns its own electric light plant, and the night exhibitions promise to be far above the ordinary.

The Aylmer Fair is in the circuit with Toronto and London.

FAIR NOTES.

No fair at Farmville, Va., this year.

Thirty-seven new fairs in our list this week.

An ad. in "The Billboard" will sell your privileges.

Automobile races will be featured quite generally this season.

From present indications there will be no county fair at Lancaster, Pa., this year.

The premiums which will be awarded by the Aylmer (Ont.) Fair Association will aggregate $3,000.

It is doubtful at this time whether the Lafayette County Fair Association, at Higginsville, Mo., will hold a fair.

Valdosta (Ga.) Fair Association has decided upon the new buildings that will be erected for the next State Fair, and contracts were let.

The secretary of the Kaw Valley Fair, at Lawrence, Kan., writes that although crops are big, the society is without funds, and there will likely be no fair.

The Concord (N. H.) State Fair Association has closed contracts which insure the third annual fair, Aug. 26-29. The free show department will be a strong feature.

While the reign of the bicycle as a fad is about over, there is still nothing that will stimulate the interest of the younger generation in the fair like a series of boys' bicycle races.

At a meeting of the directors of the Southern Interstate Fair Association, held last week at Atlanta, Ga., the committee for the fair were announced. With the exception of the chairman of the horse show committee all the appointments were made by President H. H. Cabaniss.

N. S. Gordon, of Crookston, Minn., reports very favorably upon the interest taken by parties who are to exhibit in the agricultural building of the State Fair. President B. F. Nelson visited the Elks' Fair at Minneapolis, week of June 2, to size up the exhibits and the various details of the show, with a view to utilizing any good points which might be noted.

Secretary John M. True, of the State Board of Agriculture (Michigan), received a telegram to the effect that President Roosevelt has fixed Sept. 24 as the date of his visit to Milwaukee. Accordingly the State Fair date will be postponed until Sept. 24. Milwaukee expects fully 100,000 people from all parts of the State to be in attendance.

The Danbury Agricultural Society, which will hold its fair at Danbury, Conn., Oct. 6-11, writes that this year they will make a specialty of a large dog show, in connection with the fair. This department will be under the supervision of James Mortimer, who superintends the Westminster Dog Show, in New York City. There will also be a large poultry show and horse show.

The poultry show, in conjunction with the Plymouth County Fair, to be held at La Mars, Ia., Sept. 2-5, is going to be an unusually large exhibit, and will range from 400 to 600 birds. The premium offers aggregate $500, there being premiums for the different varieties of chickens, ducks, geese, turkeys, rabbits, etc. The poultry department will be one of the drawing features of the fair.

Col. S. A. Ilsley recently bought the fair ground property of Addison County, Ky. The buildings and track are to be put in first-class shape, and the Addison County Agricultural Society will have control and use of the grounds and buildings for a whole year, instead of paying a year's rental for using the property three days as heretofore. They are to pay 6 per cent. on the cost of the improved grounds. An exhibition will be held Sept. 3-5.

Clyde Fitch, the dramatist, who recently went abroad for his health, is suffering from appendicitis. It was hoped, after a short stay at Florence, that he had completely recovered his health, but a Roman physician who was called pronounced his illness appendicitis, and the playwright hurriedly left for Berne, Switzerland, to consult a specialist in the hope of securing relief without a surgical operation.

Street Fairs and Carnivals.

SPECIAL DAY

Named for Editors and Authors at Cincinnati Fall Festival.

The Directors of the Fall Festival Association have named Wednesday, Sept. 17, Editor's and Author's Day, and are preparing to entertain their friends of the writing fraternity in first-class style. The Fall Festival annually draws crowds of people to Cincinnati, and it must be conceded that all who go there are well cared for by the hospitable inhabitants of the Queen City. The newspapers throughout the country are proverbially courteous to the association, which in return intends to show its appreciation of the consideration of its friends. A committee, consisting of prominent newspaper and literary men of Cincinnati, will be appointed to receive the visitors and introduce them to the association. It is proposed that all who accept the invitation to be present at the celebration of Editor's and Author's Day, shall arrive in Cincinnati on the afternoon of Tuesday, Sept. 14, in time to witness the gorgeous night pageant of the Mystic Order of Itan-Nic-Nic, which takes place in the evening of that day. Wednesday morning is set aside for the serious purposes of the occasion. Literary exercises will be held in the Odeon, a handsome theater convenient to the Fall Festival grounds. The committee in charge will procure representative speakers and readers, and some of the most brilliant men in charge of editorial work in this country will be heard from during the convention. At the close of the exercises the visitors will be the guests of the association for luncheon in the Swiss Chalet, where a vaudeville entertainment will be given for their pleasuring. The afternoon concludes with a trolley ride in a number of private cars, to show the visitors the beautiful suburbs, and some avenues and the Zoo, of which the city is justly proud. A visit to the exposition and the Plaza shows, where all will be the guests of the Fall Festival Association, terminates the program for the day.

ANOTHER VICTIM.

Moncrief Injured While Attempting to Loop-the-Loop.

Minneapolis, Minn., June 16.—Clarence Hamilton, known as Moncrief, a trick bicyclist, brought here from New York to "loop-the-loop" at the Elks' Fair, followed the example of his three predecessors and fell from the giant wheel on the inside of which he tried to steer a bicycle. E. Kilpatrick, John Larson and Josiah Dougherty had each been injured in attempting the feat. In his second attempt he left the rim of the big loop just as he neared the top and was riding head downward. He was hurled with terrific force among the spectators and had several ribs fractured. Besides this he received internal injuries. He is now at a hospital in a serious condition.

NEW ATTRACTION

Takes the Road—Prospects Bright for Big Success.

A new attraction called The Reed Balloon and Amusement Company, an organization financed and managed by William Maher, of Marion, Ind., is exhibiting in Zanesville, O. The Reed attraction consists of balloon ascensions, parachute jumps, high wire walking, trapeze performances, mid-air ladder balancing, and bicycle act on a high wire. This act is a good one, and promises to create considerable attention. A bicycle is ridden across a wire stretched from one building to another with a trapeze performer hanging below, going through his performance. The whole is illuminated and fire-works are sent off by the man in charge of the wheel. William Wright is Reed's partner as an acrobat, and Charles Colvin is advance agent for the attraction.

THE ALEXANDRIA CARNIVAL.

The Alexandria (Ind.) Carnival has passed into history, and there are few to regret its demise. There was seemingly a combination of the elements to such an extent that success was impossible. Rain nearly every day, accompanied by high winds. Then the free acts did not open on Monday, and when the crowds came on the inaugural night and did not see them, a howl went up, and that had a disastrous effect on the business for the balance of the week. The acts were to be put on twice daily, but were only seen at night, and none at all on Saturday. The Elks worked like Trojans, but the "Hoodoo" was too strong to overcome. The following shows were there: Mlle. Christine, Captain Sorcho's Divers, Detrick's Snakeoid, the German Village, Siegfried's Hall of Fame, Johnson's Palace of Illusions, the Zig-Zag Palace, Hermanetti Brothers, Nash and Burr's Palace of Electricity, Mills' Moorish Theater, Williams' French Theater, Finney's Red Dome of Mystery, Chris. Zimmerman's Rag-time Girls and the Freak Show.

STREET FAIR AND CARNIVAL NOTES.

Al. G. Field returned to Columbus June 16.

Oxford, O., will probably have a street fair.

An ad. in "The Billboard" will sell park privileges.

John Kaufer handles "The Billboard" with the Indiana Carnival Company.

"The Billboard" reaches more privilege people than all other papers combined.

H. P. Sourbeck has been engaged as promoter for the Bostock-Ferari Carnival Company.

The Elks at Princeton, Ind., have set the date for their carnival the first week in August.

Preparations are under way for the Elks' Carnival, to be held July 21, at West Hancock, Mich.

The Young Men's Business Club, at Benton, Tex., have decided on a street fair, to begin July 4.

Col. Hudspeth, of the Indiana Carnival Company, reports they are booked solid until October.

A. L. Hitt's trained wild animal show is doing good business with the Wright Carnival Company.

Linton, Ind., is to have a street fair, June 16-21. This makes the first one in the history of the town.

De Kreko Bros.' Roman Carnival Company opened the Elks' Fair at Victor, Col., June 9, to 10,000 people.

The Elks of Escanaba, Mich., will hold a carnival week of July 14. Bostock-Ferari will furnish attractions.

T. J. Oatman and J. R. W. Hennessey, of the Louisville Carnival Company, were "Billboard" callers June 13.

The Bucyrus (O.) Lodge of Elks, No. 156, have secured the Robinson Carnival Company for their fair week, June 2-28.

Al. G. Field is preparing for the Columbus Carnival with all his heart in the work. It ought to and surely will be a big success.

The street fair at Savannah, Ill., was a success in every particular. Attractions were furnished by Bauscher's Carnival Co.

The Elks at Shelbyville, Ind., have declared their carnival off. The Council would not give them the use of the streets.

It was rumored last week that Kearney Speedy had been killed in St. Louis. The news spread rapidly, and was accepted on every hand.

The De Betts have made quite a hit this season with their new aerial act, and they are booked for a long run with the Wright Carnival Company.

The "Two Coles" are a "big hit" at every stand with the Indiana Carnival Company. They perform on the double trapeze, flying rings and on bounding ropes.

C. F. Thornton, manager of Thornton's Shows, will furnish two snake shows for the Marshalltown (Ia). Carnival. He has exclusive rights for three shows.

During the carnival at Bowling Green, Ky., Johnson, the high diver with DeKreko Bros. Show, saved a lad from drowning in the river at the risk of his own life.

If the Elks' Carnival at Springfield, O., follows, in point of success, the precedent established by the circus which they gave, it will be gratifying to everybody interested.

The Elks' committee at Shelbyville, Ind., presented a petition for the free use of the Public Square, but the same was not granted. As a result, no carnival will be held in July.

The Elks at Lebanon, Ind., have abandoned their project of giving a Fourth of July celebration, and instead will try to secure Bostock's animal show for the week June 30-July 5.

Al. G. Field has talked Columbus Carnival clear across the continent and back. Every place he stopped—at St. Louis, Kansas City, Denver, Salt Lake—he managed to get a reading notice in the papers.

Nat Reiss, of the Southern Carnival Company, has been confined to his bed for several weeks with typhoid fever, at Cook's Hospital, in Fairmont, W. Va., and he seems to be getting along very slowly.

Manager N. P. Myers, of Concord Park, Natchez, Miss., who is making preparations for a big blowout the week of July 4, is now booking Midway attractions. No admission will be charged to the grounds.

Following is the roster of the free attractions with the Indiana Carnival Company: Patrick Kelly, diving ladder; Steiner Bros., horizontal bar performers and acrobates; Sauers, contortionist; Ona Young, juggler.

F. P. Kennett's "Mozzel, Maid of the Mist," a new electrical creation, is one of the largest and most complete electrical theaters on the road under canvas, and is turning them away. It is one of the leading paid attractions of the Wright Carnival Company.

Things are progressing nicely for the Columbus (O.) Carnival, to be held June 30-July 5. Chairman Field, now en route to California, telegraphed Secretary Jacobs that he would stop at many of the Indian reservations, and secure Indians from each tribe for the big Indian Village.

The Wright Carnival Company has broken all their records for business this season. They have been out fourteen weeks, and have not played a losing week, but have done splendidly at all places. Col. H. W. Wright attributes all his success to the cleanness of his Midway, not allowing gambling nor shows of immoral nature to be put on.

Following is the list of free attractions furnished by Bauscher's Carnival Company: W. P. Creswell (Bicycle Bill), the trick bicycle rider and lasso twirler; John Flood, acrobatic barrel jumper; Hayden & Parks, in their great return act; Geo. W. France, clever dancer and bar performer; C. S. Concord, the clown, with his scientific balancing act; Harry Lerano, in his great contortion act, and the Melville children, in their clever cake-walk, which never fails to make a hit.

The free street fair and Elks' carnival to be given at Deadwood, S. D., July 29 to Aug. 2, inclusive, will be a hummer, as it is the first affair of that kind that has ever been introduced in the Black Hills. Jim Black, the director, is billing it like a circus within a radius of Omaha, Sioux City, Denver and Billings, Mont. Low rates have been secured on all lines leading to the Black Hills, plenty of free attractions have been engaged, and with the enormous output of gold during the past year, there is no question that the privileges and concessions will reap a rich harvest.

RACING
TROTTING RUNNING

SPEED RING NOTES.

Oconto, Wis., will have a race meet, June 18.

A race meet will be held at the Oconto (Wis.) fair grounds June 18.

The Warren County Fair Association will have a race meet at their fair, Sept. 10-13.

Excellent races will be a feature at the Austin (Tex.) Fair, to be held some time in July.

A race meet will be held in conjunction with the St. Joseph (Mo.) Fair, Sept. 15-20, inclusive.

A track has been built at the Creston (Ia.) Fair Grounds, for the district fair, set for Sept. 16-19.

The Midsummer Carnival and Street Fair Association will hold a race meet July 14-16 at Montpelier, Ind.

Many fast horses will come to the race meet of the Marion (Ind.) Driving Association, to be held July 22-25.

July 6 will be given to racing and firemen's tournament, at the Young Men's Business Club Fair, Belton, Tex.

One thousand dollars will be hung up in the speed ring, in conjunction with the fair to be held at Aylmer, Ont., Sept. 23-25.

In connection with the fair at Knoxville, Ia., the usual trotting and pacing speed races will be held. There will be twelve races for $700 each, the amount of the purses offered being $6,000.

Charley Herr (2:07), the famous Kentucky trotter who earned the soubriquet of "The Iron Horse," because of his hard campaign at Lexington, June 10, stepped a mile nicely in 2:14. He worked sound, and trainers think his lameness of last year is gone for good.

The Middlesex East Agricultural Association will open the following early closing events for the Wakefield and Reading Fair, to be held Sept. 23-26: Trotting, 2:40 and 2:25; pacing, 2:30 and 2:23. The purses are for $400 each. Entries close July 1, and will be open to horses with records made previous to June 16.

The trotting season is now well under way. In the East, Baltimore has been the scene of light harness sport. As usual, the amateurs are out bright and early, and from the way driving clubs are springing up all over the country it certainly looks as though they will divide the field with the professional tracks. Still, there are plenty of horses to go around, and those which are fast enough are likely to be with the tracks which hang up the money.
